

Cincinnati Protest Art

No parade! Let's have the most meaningful Fourth of July ever! Let's address racial injustice now!

Ideas for making your own protest art for display on home, porch, yard, window or door

*Make your own sign to display in your yard

*Decorate a pre-existing, preprinted sign to make an even bigger impact.

*Creating collage work

(poly-acrylic spray from local hardware store can make it weather durable.

*Make a Flag or banner that conveys your message. Or change an existing one.

*Paint or decorate a glass window or door from the inside or outside to become its own mural And it's automatically illuminated and from the inside and protected from the elements. You could paint a sheet even and hang it from your house.

*Create a shrine in the front yard to honor someone who has been killed.

*Use sidewalk chalk to convey your own message or a quote from someone who inspires you.

*Make a peace pole for racial Justice

*Make an archway to you driveway or entrance that says what you stand for And what you expect in your home (All are welcome here)

*Create your own poster or print to hang on telephone poles or in public places

* add to any pre-existing yard art you already have created (scarecoronas, gnomes, flamingos, etc.

Humor can be powerful if done respectfully.

*Take photos of your art and share it on social media. You do not need to post your address unless you just want to. Specifically:

#cincinnati protestart2020 for instagram

Cincinnati protestart2020 on facebook

More info at <https://www.tinagutierrezartsphotography.com>